VERIFICATION OF IDENTITY

In all cases, we will endeavour to confirm the identity of our customers using an electronic verification system. Therefore, you do not need to send us identity documentation with your application. Sometimes these electronic verification checks are not successful, for example, electronic verification will not be possible if you reside overseas. If the electronic verification checks are not successful, we will ask you to provide two pieces of identity documentation:

1. Certified copy of one government-issued, photo ID document to evidence your identity — such as driving licence or passport (documents must be valid and in date); and
2. Certified evidence of your address — such as utility bill or bank statement (documents must be dated within the last 3 months).

The name and address detailed on the verification documents must be the same as the name and address provided on your Application Form. They will need to be certified as true copies of the originals by a Doctor, Accountant, Solicitor, Lawyer or Financial Adviser.

Step 2: Return the form

Data protection schedule

The information that the Applicant provides on this Application Form or subsequently in other communications or correspondence with the Investment Manager in any form will be held and used in compliance with that data protection legislation which is binding on the Investment Manager. For the purposes of the data protection legislation the Investment Manager will be the data controller.

The Investment Manager may hold and process the Applicant's data for

- a. the administration of the Fund or investment products for which the Applicant is currently applying or may apply for in future;
- b. for the operation of an investment (including e.g. for registration and distribution purposes);
- c. for the purposes of statistical analysis;
- d. for independent audit purposes for the marketing of goods or services (by the Investment Manager and any of its associates); and/or
- e. for regulatory and legal reasons such as but not limited to anti money laundering and antiterrorism financing checks and procedures. The Investment Manager may transfer the Applicant's data to its associates for any of the above purposes.

The legal basis for the Investment Manager processing the Applicant's personal information in the ways described in this schedule will typically be because the processing is necessary: (i) to fulfil its obligations under this Agreement; (ii) for its legitimate business interests; (iii) for compliance with a legal obligation to which it is subject; or (iv) because the Applicant has provided the Investment Manager with their consent.

The Investment Manager may transfer the Applicant's personal information to a third party in countries outside the United Kingdom for further processing in accordance with the purposes set out in this data protection schedule.

In particular, the Applicant's personal information may be transferred throughout the Investment Manager's associates and to outsourced service providers located abroad. In these circumstances the Investment Manager will, as required by applicable law, ensure that the Applicant's privacy rights are adequately protected by appropriate technical, organisation, contractual or other lawful means.

The Investment Manager will retain the Applicant's personal information as long as is reasonably necessary for the purposes listed in this schedule or as required by local applicable law. Usually, the Investment Manager will retain its file and information in relation to the Applicant and the matter in relation to which the Applicant has engaged the Investment Manager after the termination of the engagement for such period as may be required by law or for 6 years (whichever is longer). All papers and files, including important original documents such as trust deeds, corporate documents and contractual agreements will be stored in the Investment Manager's archive storage facilities. Please contact the Investment Manager directly for further details of applicable retention periods.

Where a financial adviser or other authorised professional person acts on the Applicant's behalf, the Investment Manager shall be entitled to disclose information concerning the Applicant's investment to that financial adviser or other professional person unless the Applicant instructs the Investment Manager in writing not to do so. Save as noted above, the Investment Manager will not without good and reasonable cause provide to any other third party any information relating to the Applicant, unless the Applicant has given his/her written consent or unless the Investment Manager is required to do so by law or by a regulatory authority. Such good and reasonable cause would include the disclosure of information where the Investment Manager is acquiring or selling Investments in which case the Investment Manager may provide information (including information concerning the Applicant) to the prospective investee company or purchaser.

If the Applicant wishes the Investment Manager to remove his/her data from its records the Investment Manager will do so within a reasonable time upon receipt of an instruction in writing, as far as is reasonably practical and within the Investment Manager's control, subject to any legal or taxation or accounting or regulatory constraints which require the Investment Manager to retain data for a period of time. The Applicant is entitled to request details of information the Investment Manager holds about him/her and to require the Investment Manager to correct any inaccuracies in such personal data. In addition, the Applicant has other rights under applicable data protection legislation that it may exercise against the Investment Manager along with the right to withdraw any consent to the data processing, the right to lodge a complaint with the applicable data protection supervisory authority (being the Information Commissioner's Office or any superseding or replacement body). If the Applicant would like more information about how to exercise their other rights, they should contact the Investment Manager directly.

Except as provided for in this schedule the Investment Manager will not permit so far as it is within its control any third party to use data held by it about the Applicant for commercial purposes.
