Risk Factors

An investment in the Puma AIM ISA Inheritance Tax Service may not be suitable for all investors. An investment in the Service carries risk and you should take your own independent advice. You should only invest in the Service on the basis of the Investment Details and Investor Agreement which details the risks of the investment. Below are the key risks of the Service:

Past Performance: Past performance is no indication of future results and share prices and their values can go down as well as up.

Tax Reliefs are not Guaranteed: Tax reliefs depend on individuals' personal circumstances, minimum holding periods and may be subject to change.

You May Lose Money: An investment in smaller companies is likely to be higher risk than other investments. Investors' capital may be at risk and Investors may get back less than their original investment.

Long-Term Investment: An investment in the Service should be considered a long-term investment.

Potentially Illiquid Investment: AIM stocks are largely small and illiquid. They are characterised by significant spreads and low trading volumes. It may prove difficult for Investors to realise immediately or in full proceeds from the sale of such shares.
